BASKETEERS WIN OVER ROCHESTER

SCORE 31 TO 26

Quintet Comes From Behind in Season's Second Game and Defeats Rochester Five—Many Fouls Called—Hamilton Displays Fine Team-work in Last Half

After giving Rochester the edge in the first half of the basketball game last Friday, the Buff and Blue rallied and sent the Yellow down to defeat by a 31-26 score. For most of the first half Rochester led the Hamilton team in points, but soon after the beginning of the final period the Buff and Blue seemed to hit its stride and started toward a well-earned victory. Throughout the entire game both teams played furiously and made many fouls. Kirchmaier, for Rochester, scored 14 out of 19 tries from the foul-line.

Soon after the game started Hamilton scored the first point when Stern made good a foul shot. Rochester tied the score a little later when Kirchmaier also shot one from the fifteen-foot mark. Another foul and a field basket by Kirchmaier put Rochester in the lead; and the Yellow kept this lead throughout the entire half. Hamilton seemed unable to get started in this half, and it appeared that they would not be able to check the Rochesterians. The half ended with the Rochester quintet leading 15-9.

When the second half started it seemed as though the Buff and Blue had put an entirely different team on the floor, so well did the pass-work and team-work move. In a short time Hamilton overcame the six-point lead. Three foul shots by Kirchmaier put the visitors once more in the lead, but only for a short time when field goals by Stern and Hatch once more put Hamilton to the fore. At different times during this half, first one team would take a one-point lead and then the other team would come to the front. In the closing minutes of play, Hamilton took the lead and held it to the end.

The team-work which the Buff and Blue showed in the second half was the best that has been seen on this court since the sport was revived here three years ago. Kirchmaier was the shining light of the visitors, scoring 20 out of the 26 points. Of his twenty points, fourteen were made from the foul mark.

DEBATE TRIALS TO BE HELD THURSDAY NIGHT IN CHAPEL

The trials for intercollegiate debating will be held Thursday evening, January 19, in the college chapel. Four teams will be picked this year, and it is planned to have no man debate more than once. The question to be taken for the trials is the same that will be debated between Hamilton and Amherst. The proposition is "Resolved that the open shop is justifiable." Each man competing will be allowed five minutes in which to speak on either side of the question. There will be no rebuttal as has been formerly the custom.

A large number of undergraduates, especially underclassmen, are expected to compete for places on the teams. Class precedence will have no part in the selection of the debaters by the Debate Council.

PI DELTA EPSILON PASSES RESOLUTION

Sanctions Sending Candidate for Hamiltonian Manager From Fraternity of Present Manager—Palmer, '23, Elected Convention Delegate

At a recent meeting of the local chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, the national honorary journalistic fraternity, it was voted to sanction the sending out of candidates this year for the position of business manager of the Hamiltonian from the same crowd as the present manager. There has been an unwritten law on the Hill that no man from the same crowd as the managers of the different activities, should be allowed to enter the competition for the respective positions. This year, however, there has been an unusual problem presented. Manager Willard of the 1923 Hamiltonian has been unable to secure candidates for manager from the other crowds, so Pi Delta Epsilon passed this new ruling to alleviate the present situation. Pi Delta Epsilon is a representative fraternity made up of the editors, business managers, and members of the Boards of the different publications in college; and, as the members are not restricted to any one crowd, or group of crowds, their sanction of this violation of the unwritten law is representative of the college as a whole.

Fred L. Palmer, '23, was elected as delegate to the national convention of Pi Delta Epsilon, which is to be held about Easter time at the University of Illinois.

Pi Delta Epsilon also announces that W. C. Macey, '22, has been pledged, in recognition of his work on the last two Hamiltonians and the Royal Gaboon.

Y. M. C. A. SHOW IN FEBRUARY

The Y. M. C. A. vaudeville show which was scheduled for some time this month in the Hall of Commons, has been postponed until February, according to Howland, '22, a member of the committee. The date for giving the performance has not as yet been decided upon. The reason given for this dhange in schedule was that time before examinations is too short to put on the show.

COMPLETE PROGRAM FOR PROM. ANNOUNCED

Chairman Morehouse Makes Public Final Arrangements—Tickets Now on Sale by Members of Committee—Decorating by Utica Company

DAMON FURNISHES MUSIC

Plans for the 1923 Prom are now complete, and all indications point to its being one of the greatest Proms ever staged by any class on the Hill. February 2, 3 and 4 are bound to be long remembered by many a fair damsel, and by all of the fellows dwelling at Hamilton-on-the-Hill. Chairman Morehouse and his efficient committee have not left a single thing undone to make these three days grand and glorious ones.

Thursday, the initial day of Prom, will see the festivities started by the respective crowds entertaining at their various houses. Friday afternoon the Hamilton-Springfield hockey game will be played in the new athletic building. The game will be called at 2:00 p. m., and this affair, under the direction of Capt. Reeder, will be one of the big events of the week. This will be the formal opening of the rink, and it is urged that skating take place after the game as long as desired. In the afternoon at 4 o'clock the combined musical clubs will stage a concert in Commons Hall. Leaders Langtry and Burns both have large personnels this year and promise a program of snappy selections.

The biggest event of them all, the 1923 Junior Promenade, will be staged in the Soper Gymnasium at nine o'clock sharp. The Gym will not be recognizable to those who are at present used to seeing its drab interior. It will be decorated in an original and unique style by the Payfitch Company of Utica, under the direction of Mrs. Katherine Sicard of the Court Shop, Inc., of Utica. Damon of the Hotel Seneca of Rochester and his "Demons of the Jazz" are booked to furnish the music. The orchestra is composed of nine pieces and are the ones used in the making of records for the Columbia Company. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Southworth of Commons, who promises to give the desired nourishment to keep the old pep alive.

Twenty dances and four extras, all of the latest music, are the numbers engraved on the dance cards, which were made by the C. H. Elliott Company of Philadelphia. The program is rather novel and is made especially for the Hamilton Prom. There will be no Prom Week Boob, but the list of events is recorded in a pleasing manner in the dance program.

Saturday afternoon will see the survival of the fittest still enjoying the gay time. The Sophomore Class will entertain with a Tea Dance at the Alpha Delta Phi Hall. The D. T. Club will give a Tea Dance at the Psi Upsilon House from four until six o'clock. Saturday night the various crowds will entertain at their houses.

Prom tickets can now be secured from any of the members of the Prom Committee. The price is $8.00 per couple. The Committee requests that all men buy these tickets as soon as possible.

HOCKEY SEASON AND NEW RINK OPEN WITH WIN OVER AMHERST

Fast Playing Results in 2-1 Victory for Buff and Blue Over Purple in Close Game on Ice—Amherst Held on Defensive for Most of Game.

HOCKEY TEAM MEETS ARMY AT WEST POINT FRIDAY

Game Dependent Upon Weather Conditions—Army Has Defeated Colgate

With one victory to its credit the Buff and Blue hockey team will go to West Point next Friday to meet the Army in the second game of the season. Little is known of the Army team this year that will allow of any speculation as to the outcome of the game. Colgate went down to defeat before the West Pointers Saturday by a three to nothing score. Last year in the contest at West Point, Hamilton completed her season with a 5-1 victory, despite the reputed strength of the West Pointers. The student body will watch eagerly the result of Hamilton's first game away from home this season. The game is played on the ice of the Lower Hudson, and this fact puts much responsibility on the weather. The cold weather of the last few days and the promise of a continued low temperature by the Weather Man should, however, provide good ice for the game.

Manager Bennett has found it necessary to change the date of the Columbia game which was scheduled for February 3 to February 6. However, on Friday afternoon, February 3, the hockey team will encounter Springfield Y. M. C. A. College at Clinton. This game coming as it does will prove to be one of the big events of Junior Prom Week.

DR. FERRY GIVES REPORT BEFORE COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

Dr. Frederick C. Ferry attended the meeting of the Association of American Colleges held in Chicago January 12-14. As chairman of the Commission on Faculty and Student Scholarship, he gave a report. Dr. Ferry is a member of the executive committee of the association.

Under the commission on curriculum he presented a chart at the meeting, which showed the changes in elections made by the undergraduates in 18 selected institutions during a period of eight years.

FIRST SCORE COMES QUICKLY AT BEGINNING OF GAME

Hamilton Displays Early Season Lack of Team-work—Amherst Rallies in Last Period—Large Crowd Witnesses Struggle

The Hamilton puck-chasers emerged victors from the initial game of the season with Amherst last Friday evening by a score of 2 to 1. The game was the opening of the new indoor rink, which was crowded with spectators eager to witness the match between the two teams. The contest was marked by keen competition and speed in conveying the puck. Both teams were frequently forced to shift from defensive to offensive and each threatened to score many times, but was prevented by the excellent interference of the two goal guards. Amherst showed fine team-work with Sylvester at left wing and Plimpton at goal the most conspicuous figures for the visitors. The Buff and Blue team played an excellent game although the team-work was not quite up to standard. At times, Referee Noonan found it necessary to inflict penalties, but these were infrequent considering the keen struggle for the possession of the puck.

The referee's whistle started the game at eight-thirty. W. Thompson carried the puck down to Amherst's goal and passed it to R. Thompson, who shot the goal within the first fifteen seconds of play. The puck frequently changed hands during the remainder of the period and both teams were forced to tighten up to prevent further scoring. Bates was temporarily injured, and Yates took his place at left wing. Hamilton managed to keep the puck in Amherst's territory for the greater part of the period, but the Purple's repeated attacks seriously threatened a score many times. Marlow, displaying excellent form at left defense, brought the puck out of the Buff and Blue territory repeatedly. The bell ended the first period without further scoring.

Bates again took his position at left wing in the second period. Watson Thompson obtained the puck and after skillful maneuvering brought it in front of Amherst's goal and netted it for an additional point. Several attempts were made at long shots by the Buff and Blue, but Plimpton prevented scoring by his excellent guarding.

In the third period, Amherst's playing slightly outclassed that of the Hamilton team when they opened a series of aggressive attacks that resulted in Sylvester scoring Amherst's only point of the game. The Purple managed to keep within shooting distance of the Buff and Blue goal for the larger share of the period, but Hamilton's defense tightened up and prevented further soring. The final whistle concluded the game with the score 2 to 1 in Hamilton's favor.

The prize of ten dollars for the best editorial submitted in the recent contest fostered by Pi Delta Epsilon has been awarded to William J. Woods, '22. The judges have been unable to agree upon the editorial to receive the second prize of five dollars. Their decision, however, will shortly be announced. Mr. Woods' editorial is printed herewith.

The Hamilton-Union Tradition.

On Saturday, November the twenty-ninth, Hamilton College played its twenty-second annual game with Union. It was the eleventh biennial contest in which Union's eleven has been held scoreless on Hamilton's field. The showing of the two elevens throughout the season had caused Union adherents to offer large odds that their team would win. The team, fresh from a victory over Wesleyan, was confident of a close victory. The Hamilton eleven, despite a disastrous season, felt that Union could never defeat them. The result was one of the hardest-fought football games of recent years. Hamilton won, not because of a better team or because of lucky breaks, but because she fought a little harder than her opponents.

And thus has it always been. In no Hamilton-Union game on the Hill, has Union ever scored. Time and again the ball has been pushed forward by the Garnet foemen till it lay within inches of the Buff and Blue goal. But no Union man could ever carry it over. Though Hamilton might be outplayed at every other spot on the field, the line has always held a little harder or the secondary defence has risen to new brilliance whenever their goal was in danger. Union might have a backfield that had scored in every other game of the season, as in 1915, but the Hamilton goal-line has thus far remained inviolate.

How, one might ask, did Don Stone manage to tackle a speedy Union man on the five-yard line after chasing him two-thirds the length of the field? How was "Fee" La Force, in 1915, able to stop four massed attacks between the one-yard line and the goal? What superhuman ability did "Cart" Schwartz possess that he could intercept a high forward pass behind the goal-line, and eluding four tacklers carry it back to the ten-yard mark? The only answer is, "Union has never scored on Hamilton's field!"

And in that answer lies one of the greatest traditions of Hamilton College. It bespeaks pride and determination and courage of the highest order. Outweighed, outplayed, lacking experience, or weakened with injuries, the Buff and Blue has become a super-team whenever Union threatened to score. Players of mediocre skill have become demons of inspired ability. Battered linesmen have held like giants.

No one who saw the game last Saturday left the field without a higher respect for Hamilton. Forgotten were "Miss Roberts' Finishing School" and the "Hamilton Golf and Tea Club." Instead one carried away a vision of hard, aggressive, red-blooded men. A college which could go through such a nerve-racking and hopeless football season as Hamilton's had been, and emerge with more fire and energy than ever to a victorious climax, is the sort of college everyone respects.

To the undergraduate such a victory brings a new pride in his college. Some undergraduates have, or think they have, a more mature outlook on life. But to the vast majority, wearied with brain-fag and driven with a multitude of tasks which do not interest them, the Hamilton-Union tradition is the crock of gold at the foot of the rainbow. When the jibes of friends from other institutions become unbearable, they point with pride to this tradition and challenge their tormentors to show its equal. The alumnus, grown grouchy over the changes made since his day, softened a bit that Saturday and admitted that perhaps after all the College hadn't gone entirely to the devil.

But the main point is that the tradition brings forth such heroic efforts as that of the 1921 Union game. To undergraduate, alumnus, and subfreshman, that game was the epic of Hamilton's traditional glory; it was the famous "Hamilton Spirit" epitomized. Great men will be great whatever their Alma Mater, but mediocre men become heroic only when driven by an unconquerable devotion to something they hold sacred—to a Hamilton-Union tradition.

GABOON TO APPEAR AT PROM

The next number of the Royal Gaboon will make its appearance on the night of Friday, February 3, at the Junior Prom in Soper Gymnasium. It will be devoted to the interests of the fair ones who are to be the guests of the College at that time. The cover design by Hall, '23, is an attractive feature of the book. Much effort has been expended in the attempt to do full justice to the greatest social event of the college year and indications point to an exceptionally fine Prom issue.

Spice o' Life

A cat has nine lives, so they say,
And that indeed is right,
But you never hear about the frog,
And he croaks every night.

He: "I saw you get on the street car the other day."
She: "Oh, you mean thing!"

Willie in a fit of gall
Drank some wooden alcohol.
Willie died and Ma was pensive
Alcohol is so expensive.

Tit: "They say that whisky shortens a man's life."
Tat: "Yes, but he sees twice as much in the same length of time."

Dumb: "Why did you put the postage stamp on the left hand corner of the envelope?"
Dumber: "I go to a correspondence school and that's our college yell."

She: "When you tell a man anything it goes in one ear and out the other."
He: "And when you tell a woman anything it goes in at both ears and comes out at her mouth."

The Girl: "Do you believe in free love?"
And the Boy: "When I'm broke."

Louis XVI: "They hanged her in China."
Wm. the Conqueror: "Shanghai?"
Louis: "No, not very."

Daughter: "Father, do you care if I take singing lessons?"
Father: "Not if you take them away."

Beginner: "Funny game, golf."
Caddy: "'Tain't meant to be."

"Would you marry a widower, Peggy?"
"No, I prefer to tame my own husband."

Freshman: (giving an extemporaneous dinky-deck).....behind the house there is a garden, and in the garden there is a pool, and in the pool are alligators and gold-fish."

Prof.: "Who was the woman who said of her children, 'They are my jewels.'?"
Stude: "Mother of pearl."

"Were you ever pinched for going too fast?"
"No, but I've been slapped."

Chile: "I hear that Colgate and Williams had a swimming meet."
Bean: "Yes, and there was so much foam in the water that they had to call it off."

"I hear he drinks something awful."
"Yeh, I tasted it."

MUSICAL CLUBS PLANNING FEATURE PROGRAM FOR PROM

Complete Program Still Undecided—Monologue Act Needed—Burns Announces Large Cut in Glee Club Ranks After Prom Concert

Although the complete program for the Prom concert of the musical clubs cannot yet be announced, the following numbers have been decided upon by Leader Langtry for the instrumental club: "Why, Dear," "Cho-Cho-San," "April Showers," "Everybody Step," "Sweet Lady," "Vamping Rose," "Blue Danube Blues," "Ka-Lu-A." The Glee Club will sing "The Clang of the Forge," in addition to several Hamilton songs. Leaders Burns and Langtry believe that with these selections and the customary vaudeville acts the clubs will be able to put on a well-rounded program.

Thus far no plans have been made for a monologue act. As this has been a feature of past concerts, it is hoped that some one with talent will be found who can take the place which "Zip" Griffith, '21, so ably filled last year. For those who wish to put on a monologue act at the Prom concert, try-outs will be held in the near future.

Leader Burns announces that after the Prom concert a large cut will be made in the personnel of the Glee Club.

BASKETBALL TEAM TO PLAY CLARKSON AND SYRACUSE

Tomorrow night the basketball team meets Clarkson Technical Institute in the Soper gymnasium, and Saturday night Syracuse will be played in Syracuse. Clarkson has already played a good many more games this season than has the Buff and Blue. Colgate defeated them 48-34 in the first game of the Maroon's schedule. The distinguishing feature of Clarkson's style of play is that they play an individual game, with little or no team-work, which seems to be a characteristic feature of Canadian basketball. The Syracuse team, under the direction of Coach Dollard, is known to be particularly strong. It has defeated Colgate, Clarkson, and Union by decisive scores. Syracuse was fortunate in retaining the nucleus of Captain Lavin, Kellogg, Weltman, and Fisher from last year's lettermen.

HAMILTON TRUSTEE DEAD

Hon. Hamilton B. Tompkins, '65, prominent author and traveller, was found dead in bed at his residence in Newport, R. I., on Dec. 23. He was in his seventy-ninth year. After leaving Hamilton, Mr. Tompkins entered the New York University Law School, from which he later received his degree. In 1876 he married Miss Susan L. Ledyard. He was connected with the Bankers' Loan and Investment Co. of New York, with C. Poyet, Inc., and with the Hudson River Land Co. He also belonged to a number of societies and clubs in Newport, among them the Reading Room, Casino, Redwood, the Country Club, and the Literary and Art Association. He made several trips to Palestine for historical research, and was the author of several books. In 1892 Mr. Tompkins was elected a member of the Board of Trustees of Hamilton College, to serve an indefinite term. He was a member of the Sigma Phi fraternity.

"Nobody loves a fat man." There is one—well—rotund gentlemen (he is known for his rotundity, so to speak) whom we would be a great deal more apt to love if he forgot to come to class, say once a year at least.

It has come at last! The art course has had an effect. We are informed that we have an "Ice Palace." No mere hockey rink for us! But while they were doing it, why in the name of ten-cent hot dogs didn't they do it up brown and call it a Crystal Colosseum? It's a hard question.

Some unworthy contrib has remarked that hockey is such a low sport that we have to keep it under cover.

Speaking of the hockey rink, or rather ice palace, have you thought how cleverly managed this business of skating is? The order has been sent forth that all freshmen are to play hockey during gym classes. "Postum"-ly speaking, there's a reason. The store rents skates and sells hockey sticks; and you know who the director of the store is.

All men wishing to contrib to a worthy cause please signify this desire by wearing polished shoes to chapel next Friday morning. Dean Alfange is badly in need of an extra heavy, reenforced watch chain on which to wear the many keys he now possesses or is thinking of possessing. Dean is considering wearing his keys as shirt studs if he can find someone else with enough keys to join him in starting the style. Key-p up the good work, Senator.

The colyum last week called attention to something we have missed around here this year. We've had a feeling all along that there was something missing, and despite the remarkable Sherlocking which revealed one of the things, the feeling still remained. We have now discovered what it is; the artistic effusion, known and loved by every Hamilton man, is late in coming out this winter. The College Catalogue has not yet appeared; we await it eagerly (to see if they spelt our name right.)

It is not too early to begin raising your prom mustache now. Of course, some of the upperclassmen have a head start, but cheer up, little hairs, you'll be a mustache by and by.

Some visitor pulled a bad one the other day. He walked into the new Psi U manse and asked how much they'd charge him for room and board for a week; said he wanted to spend some time around the college compiling statistics on the number of Phi Bet men who wear their galoshes unbuckled. We have always felt the need for a college inn, but did not expect the Psi U's to come through with one.

"Now is the time for all good snowshovellers to come to the aid of their crowd."

HAMILTON QUINTET LOSES FIRST GAME

Colgate Gains Victory Over Buff and Blue in Opening Game—Teams Battle on Even Terms in Second Half

Hamilton lost the first game of the basketball season when the Colgate five defeated the Buff and Blue at Hamilton last Wednesday night. The final score was 41-26, but the game was closer than the above figures indicate. Some sensational long shots in the first half of the game gave Colgate the initial advantage. Hamilton came back gamely in the second period, but was unable to even the score. Few fouls were called by the referee.

The game started with a rush, Eppie Barnes caging the first basket for the Maroon. The Colgate five rapidly ran up points, shooting from the center of the floor. Doane made Hamilton's first goal, but the team had little chance at the basket during the half. Capt. Stern made one long shot in the first period, and Garner also scored. But the team was decidedly off form, and the half ended with the score 24-10 in Colgate's favor.

In the second half, the Buff and Blue staged a great come-back and fought the Maroon players on even terms. Hamilton's team–play was better, and some long shots, successfully caged, enabled the Buff and Blue to make a close fight. Garner was all over the floor this period, and made three field goals. Stern again came through with a long shot from the center of the floor.

Both teams showed a good offensive. The Hamilton defense was weak in the first half, but tightened up later in the game. The Hamilton forwards had a hard time breaking through for close shots throughout the contest. Numerous substitutions were made by both teams. Garner was easily the star of the game for Hamilton, out-jumping Mosier, Colgate center, repeatedly, and caging five field goals. Capt. Stern played a brilliant floor game for the Buff and Blue, and Doane made a fine showing at forward. O'Connor and Barnes were the Colgate stars, O'Connor making fifteen of the Maroon's points, and Barnes ten.

The Buff and Blue was handicapped by the small Colgate court, and their showing under the circumstances is admittedly good for the first game of the season.

JANUARY ISSUE OF LIT TO APPEAR BEFORE PROM

Many Alumni Contributions—Stories by Palmer and Mulford—Call for Prize Contest Entries

It is expected that the January issue of Lit. will appear before the first day of Junior Prom. One of the interesting features will be the unusual number of contributions by alumni. Dr. Charles F. Goss, '73, a novelist of note, has an article entitled, "Juvenile Misconception". There is another alumni article by Paul B. Williams, '08. Many of the poems contained in this issue come from the pens of alumni contributors.

Two short stories will appear among the undergraduate contributions, "Fragments," a fascinating story by Fred L. Palmer; and "The Harrowing Tale of the Harrying Hare" by Leo S. Mulford. William P. Fenn gives a good picture of the Chinese capitol in "Peking."

Editor Smith asks that all men intending to enter Lit's prize competition, send in their contributions, properly inscribed, as soon as possible. There also comes the announcement of a special feature issue for February.

NEW YORK STATE ACADEMIC PRINCIPALS HOLD BANQUET

The annual banquet and meeting of Hamilton New York State Academic Principals was held at the Hotel Onondaga in Syracuse Friday evening, December 30. The meeting was held in connection with the schoolmen's convention held in Syracuse during that week. About forty men were present. Speeches were given by Dr. F. C. Ferry, Dr. Edward Fitch, '86, Alexander Drummond, '06, Earl Watkin, '12, Eddy R. Whitney, '89, and Mr. Edward M. Coughlin, Bursar of the College.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Edward H. Lomber, '03, of Canandaigua; Secretary, Hadley E. Smith, '18, of Cortland.

HAMILTON DEBATERS MEET RUTGERS FEBRUARY 24

The next debate will take place on February 24, a dual debate with Rutgers College. Hamilton will be represented by two teams, one debating at Rutgers and one at Clinton. The question for this dual debate is: Resolved, that the United States Government should enforce the principle of the "open shop" upon the railroads.

On March 17, in a triangular debate with Union and Lafayette, a Hamilton team will debate Union at Union, while a second Hamilton team will oppose Lafayette here, on the question: Resolved, that the principle of the "closed shop" is justifiable.

A single debate against Middlebury will take place here in the latter part of March or the first part of April on the same question as that of the dual debate with Rutgers.

—Hon. William G. McAdoo, Honorary '09, former Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, is now practicing law at 43 Exchange Pl., New York City.

—S. Raymond Moffat, '20, who was formerly connected with the Rome Wire Co. of Rome, N. Y., is now associated with the Central Telephone and Electric Co., of St. Louis, Mo.

—Ralph W. Stone, '99, has recently resigned his position with the United States Geological Survey. Mr. Stone has been connected with the Survey for more than twenty years. Mr. Stone will become assistant state geologist of Pennsylvania with his residence in Harrisburg.
